

Please allow Indiana's No Call List to stand. I pay for my telephone service every month. That should give me the right as a consumer to choose who can and cannot call my line. I deplore the tactics of the Consumer Bankers Association to circumvent the laws of this great state. Thank you for your consideration.